

CODE OF ETHICS

Ultra expects all Distributors to uphold the principles of fairness, honesty and integrity in all their dealings and activities as Distributors. This Code of Ethics forms part of the Ultra Policies & Procedures and all other regulations and agreements currently in place, which bind every Independent Distributor. Any serious breach of the Code, Policies & Procedures, regulations and agreements in place will involve action(s) being taken by Ultra in accordance with the Ultra Policies & Procedures. The Code of Ethics explains proper conduct of business for Distributors to practice. Additionally, Ultra encourages all Distributors to obtain and observe the Code of Ethics that has been provided by the DSA (Direct Selling Association) in their respective countries if and where applicable. It is a mandatory requirement that Distributors comply with the Code of Ethics at all times.

Part A - CONDUCT

1. DEALING WITH THE GENERAL PUBLIC

1.1 Contact & Communications A Distributor:

- a) will at all times, when contacting anyone either from a telephone list or by other means, respect the privacy and wishes of the person contacted;
- b) will never engage in objectionable or abusive conduct, unfair or aggressive conduct when contacting or dealing with any other person in relation to Ultra or opportunity it provides;
- c) will offer the opportunities of, and association with Ultra, on its merits without exaggeration, concealment, curiosity or misrepresentation;
- d) will ensure they maintain their personal presentation in dress, language and documentation to the highest possible standard;
- e) Will observe the provisions of the law and good manners regarding times and days when making the call and appointments.

1.2 Presenting Opportunity

A Distributor presenting the Business Plan at any time, conducting a Training Event or Seminar or Ultra DISTRIBUTOR Meeting will:

- a) not falsely represent to any person any details regarding the financial rewards available under the Ultra Plan;
- b) not make any false or misleading representations about the features of Ultra's products, services and programs, including as to their standard, quality, value, characteristics, accessories, uses for a particular purpose, merchantability or benefits;
- c) not make any false or misleading representations about the price of Ultra products or services;
- d) not engage in conduct that is liable to mislead anyone as to the nature, manufacturing process, characteristics, suitability for purpose or quality of any Ultra products or services;
- e) not make any false or misleading representations concerning the need by anyone for goods or services;
- f) make it thoroughly clear to any person to whom the IR discusses the opportunity that financial rewards to Distributors are based on an Distributor's individual performance;
- g) use official literature as approved by Ultra including forms, scripts and other tools.

1.3 Conducting Business

A Distributor must not at any time:

- a) take advantage of another person's disabilities or weaknesses, such as illness, age, infirmity, lack of education or unfamiliarity with language;
- b) actively solicit or demand orders for Ultra products by anything other than an offer to collate any order a Distributor wishes to make, including by the use of physical force, undue harassment or coercion;
- c) refuse to identify themselves when requested to do so.

1.4 Explaining the Business Plan

When presenting or discussing the Ultra Business Plan and the Benefits which might be available, a Distributor must generally rely for reference on Ultra literature and observe the following regarding the contents of the Business Plan:

- a) if predictions as to profitability are made, they should reflect what an average person carrying on the Business would achieve under normal circumstances;
- b) if any estimates of profits are made, the assumptions on which they are based should be clearly stated;
- c) where there is no previous experience on which to base expectations as to profitability, this should be stated when making the representation.

When presenting or discussing the Ultra Business Plan, a Distributor must not make false representations concerning:

- a) any risks likely to be associated with carrying on the Business;
- b) the amount of time the average person would have to devote to carrying on the Business;
- c) the annual expenditure and the annual gross income which the average person carrying on the Business might expect and the method of calculating those figures.

Part B - OBLIGATIONS

2. GENERAL OBLIGATIONS

2.1 Authorization Limit Authorization of a Distributor is limited. They shall refer any matter pertaining to Ultra to the designated Company Representative. A Distributor shall not interfere in any decision making process without prior written approval from the Company Representative.

8.1 Explanation to Prospect

A Sponsor or Upline must explain to the Prospect, and complete in their presence, the details of the Online Application Forms so that the Prospect comprehends that they are personally introduced by the Upline or Referrer.

8.2 Application Subject to Acceptance

The Application Form is subject to Ultra's discretion in accepting it as a valid application and making the appointment of that person as a Distributor.

9. COMPLAINTS

If a Distributor becomes aware of a breach of this Code, and wishes to proceed to lodge a complaint, the complaint should be made in writing in accordance to Ultra Policies & Procedures.

Part D – “I AM COMMITTED TO MY SUCCESS”

“Good Business ethics starts with ME, the Leader.

As a Ultra Distributor, I will...

- Be honest and fair in my dealings with Ultra;
- Perform all my professional activities in a manner that will enhance my reputation and the positive reputation established by Ultra;
- Present the Compensation Plan accurately and honestly, clearly portraying the level of effort required in achieving success;
- Present realistic income possibilities only, and solely in relation to the appropriate effort involved;
- Present the benefits and information of the business as stated in the Company’s official literature and from my own personal experiences;
- Accept and carry out to my best effort all duties expected of a Distributor and Referrer, including training and supporting the Downlines in my organization;
- Abide by all Policies & Procedures that are applicable to the operation of my business;
- Strive to ensure that my Downlines are satisfied with my service and leadership;
- Answer the questions and queries of prospects and Downlines fairly and honestly;
- Refer only those people that I have developed as my own Downlines and/or business prospects;
- Always encourage prospect(s) developed by their initial referrers to be referred by them as well;
- Be clear that Ultra is a network marketing opportunity in which my income is related to my marketing and leadership skills as well as my own personal efforts;
- Treat all prospects, Downlines and associates with respect, goodwill and professional courtesy;
- Not entice Downlines from outside my Line of Referral ship to sign under my organization;
- Not misrepresent the Ultra business in any way;
- Not use any advertising that I know may be false or misleading;
- Be fair and just to my Downlines and associates, and not engage in practices that may reflect unfavorably on myself, my organization, the Company, and/or the industry;
- Conduct myself in such a manner as to reflect only the highest standard of integrity, frankness and responsibility because I recognize that my actions as a Distributor with Ultra have far-reaching effects;
- Use the information contained in all Ultra websites for my personal, non-commercial use only;
- Not create any unapproved or illegal websites, which may tarnish the image of Ultra and its related companies. This is my pledge and commitment to myself, my network, and my Company.”
